The following manly letter was sent in eply to one addressed to Mr. GILLIS3 by delegate to the Union Convention. It is explicit and to the point:

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 11, 1861. DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 9th inst., s before me. In it two questions are pro-cosed for my consideration: osed for my consideration : First—You desire to know if I will submit my name as a candidate for Mayor to the action of a Union Convention, to be convened during the present week. To this interrogatory my reply is contained in a card over my name under date of March 1et 1831 card over my name under date of March ist, 1861.

Second—You ask if I will "pledge myself to abide by the proceedings of said Convention." As said proceedings have not yet been made public, and being unwilling to go it blind, I arswer unhesitatingly, NO!

ingly, NO!

My reason for answering your second proposition in such an emphatic manner is, that I cannot consent to sacrifice principle for place; therefore will not agree to appear the platform or "proceedings" of ciple for place; therefore will not agree to support the platform or "proceedings" of any Convention prior to its adoption.

By birth and education I am a Southern man. I am opposed to the HIGHER-LAW and COERCIVE doctrine set forth in the Inaugural Address of Abraham Lincoln. I am in favor of a Union of ALL the States, in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution, as originally framed and interpreted by its authors. If said Union cannot be restored with satisfactory guarantees for its PERFETUITY, based on equal rights as between the North and the South, in all territory now owned or that may hereafter be acquired by the United States, I shall advocate a total separation of the Slave from the non-Slaveholding States, This is our true position.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD CONVENTION. The stockholders and members of the Pacific Railroad Company held a Convention in our city yesterday, at the small hall of the Masonic Temple. The meeting was alled to order at three o'clock in the evening, when Jacob Swigert, of Kentucky, vas appointed Chairman, and Messrs. Montgomery, Rightson and Harney Secretaries. The greater portion of the evening was spent in speeches made by President V. K. Stevenson, Messrs. Prost, Fowlkes, Young, Gen. Richardson, and Dr. Newton. Their remarks were mostly confined to the ondition of the road, the terms of the rench treaty, &c., all of which has been published in the papers from time to time. A resolution was offered by Mr. Delafield that a committee consisting of the President and one from each State present be appointed by the Chair to suggest some nanner of raising subscriptions for new stock. The following Committee was appointed: V. K. Stevenson (President), of Tenn.; Wm. Grady and Jacob Swigert, of Kentucky; J.W.S. Fry, of New York; Wm. Young and Dr. Newton, of Ohio; and R. V. Editors Louisville Courier. In a recent issue of your paper, (10th or 11th,) you say, a Mr. Chenoweth, formerly of Louisville, was flogged, &c., in Arkansas, for expressing Abolition sentiments.

As you have been imposed on in giving publicity to so libelous a charge, we will ask of you to correct a rumor which is entirely void of truth, and without the shadow of a foundation to beget such a base report. The gentleman alluded to, James M. The news of the intended evacua ion of Fort Sumter has been received by the Black Republican press of the North everywhere, and almost without exception, with howls of wrathful indignation and gnashing of teeth. The Cincinnati Commercial, a paper that tries to be only moderately Republican, says of it : The Evacuation of Fort Sumter. We occupy a large portion of our space his morning, with extracts from the New this morning, with extracts from the New York newspapers, respecting the proposed evacuation of Fort Sumter. It will be observed that all who advocate or acquiesce in the policy of the abandonment of the fort, do so upon the ground that it is a military necessity. The latest intelligence will he found in our letter, by telepraph, from Washington, in which it is positively stated that the thing has been definitely decided upon. Whenever, if ever, the thing is done, their on will enter the souls of the American people. There is reason to apprehend, that in addition to the sense of humiliation which must be general among the friends of the in addition to the sense of humiliation which must be general among the friends of the Government, at home, the effect abroad will be disastrous. The public opinion of Europe will necessarily be that this Republic is in a hopeless state of demoralization. The inexorable "military necessity" which is proclaimed will be appreciated abroad as a contemptible weakness on the part of our Government; and indeed it would be troublesome to indicate to the popular understanding here that any other view of the case is tenable. There is no conciliation in the acknowledgment of the necessity of evacuating the position in which sity of evacuating the position in which the pride of the people is now bound up. The time for higgling about measures is over, and the time for action arrived. As further specimens of mortification and bumiliation, read the following: [From the Pittsburg Dispatch.] Great surprise, and intense indignation, was caused in all quarters on Monday by the dispatches from Washington, announcing that the Government had determined to surrender Fort Sumter. No matter what the reason assigned for the step—whether the seductive persuasions of the Border Slave States, or the absolute in Border Slave States, or the absolute im Border Slave States, or the absolute impracticability, as alleged, of reinforcing in season—the fact is regarded as establishing beyond a peradventure that our Republican Government is a failure—incapable of maintaining itself, as it has proved unable to defend the liberty, the property, or the lives of its Northern subjects against the contemptible slaveholding minority!

This melancholy announcement will not meet a favorable response here. We, of course, know not the reasons for withdrawing the troops, but will venture the prediction that the nation will require them to be satisfactory. We have no heart to comment; but will wait patiently for further information. If ever truth, and justice, and right, should prevail, we think the time has arrived. Patience is almost exhausted.

of the Cincinnati Gazette telegraphs to that paper as follows:

The Departments, the President's House, and the lobbies of the Senate were all crowded to-day by office-seekers, whose numbers seem rather on the increase than diminished. In most instances the contest for the many places is very vigorous. The Evacuation of Fort Sumter-The Opinion of General Scott. The Evacuation of Fort Sumter—
The Opinion of General Scott.

A Virginia Congressman writes to a friend in this city that when Gen. Scott was asked in Cabinet Council his opinion in relation to the reinforcing of Fort Sumter, he replied substantially as follows:
"That it would take an army of from ten thousand to fifteen thousand men, with all the disposable navy of the United States. It would inaugurate," he continued, "a general civil war on a large scale; for even if the Border Slave States did not secede, thousands of their young and active men would join the army of the Confederate States."

Before reinforcing Fort Sumter it would be necessary, in his opinion, to establish a camp near Washington of from twenty-five thousand to thirty thousand men, to maintain possession of it against violence from the adjoining Slave States. He was convinced that, under the circumstances, it was madness to think of coercion. He further expressed his belief that the first year of civil war would cost a hundred million dollars, together with an army of one hundred thousand men.—[Cim. Enq.

It is confidently believed that the withdrawal of the troops from Fort Sumter was ordered this morning. They will embark on board of an iron steamer for Baltimore, or be landed at Fortress Monroe. At Old Point the Verginians are greatly excited by this movement. They assert that all the force of the Government is to be concentrated in Virginia, Maryland, and North Carolina, in order to hold those States in check it secession is attempted. Without objection from the Journal, we should have doubted the propriety of the movement indicated: without its abuse and denunciation, which are so freely poured out on everything that is not intended to consolidate the power and to further the purposes of anti-slaveryism, we would have feared that the suggestion lacked some important element of loyalty to the institutions and honor of the South. DAILY COURIER. With a recklessness that is indicative of the desperation of the Submissionists in Kentucky, the Journal asserts of this State that " her institutions are not only unmenaced, but they are guarded by the faith of the Union, the sanctity of the Constitution and the majestic guardianship of the laws."

On the 8th of January last its friends, in Convention assembled in this city, with its approval and indersement, solemnly affirmed that Mr. LINCOLN was elected by one section of the Union " on the ground of opposition to the institutions of the other. Don't the inauguration and administration of a President so elected menace the "institutions" of Kentucky? But, as if conscious that this assertion was too palpable to be credited, we are told that we should rest quiet under any circumstances, because we are "guarded by the faith of the Union, the sanctity of the Constitution, and the majestic guardanship of the laws." And this is expected to satisfy Kentuck-

The "faith of the Union, the sanctity of the Constitution, and the majesti guardianship of the laws" are pledged for the protection of our rights, and though that pledge is to be made good, if at all, by Northern people and States that have bre ken their faith with us and wronged us in character and property, as our Union friends assured us in January, we are to fold our arms content with the paper agreement but for the persistent and flagrant violation of which there would have been no difficulty and no separation

The slave trade was debated in the House of Commons on resolutions offered by Mr. Cain declaring the efforts to suppress it hitherto ineffectual, and pointing to the introduction of free labor in the West Indies as the most efficient means.

Lords Russell and Palmerston strongly deprecated the policy of America in preventing search and permitting the prosentiation of its flag. Buckston feared the Southern Confederation would renew the slave trade, and hoped the Government would never recognize it without express stipulations against it.

The resolutions were finally withdrawn.

Lord Stratford de Redeliffe moved for the correspondence relative to Syria.

The Government objected pending the sittings of the Paris Conference.

Lord John Russell said nothing yet was determined relative to a prolonged occupation.

We notice that some of the Cincinnati and Pittsburg boats have lately taken away from here quite a good amount of Louisville freight. We do not know how to account for this, as at card rates the Louisville boats must surely have the preference over the apper Ohio river packets. In one instance, however, the deception was gladied as control.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. Daniels, is advertised for New Oricans this evening. She is a new fast boat, and Captain Duncan, the clerk, will attend promptly to passenger.

FOR HENDERSON.— The Eugene is the mail and passenger packet this evening, at 5 o'clock, for Troy, Cannellton, Hawesville, Owensboro, Evansville, Henderson, and all other landings. She starts from Portland, in charge of Capt. Sayres, with W. A. Duvall in the office to ticket passengers.

get along very harmoniously, and all stand up to the rules, as will be seen by the following transaction in Pittsburg:

The Pittsburg steamboat captains fined one of their number yesterday one hundred dollars for carrying freight from Wheeling to St. Louis for less than the card rates. They seem determined to live up to the rules and regulations they have formed for the government and better improvement of the steamboat trade.

The Memphis Appeal, of Tuesday, has the following river items: The Glendale arrived from Cincinnati; she returns to morrow. The Neptune also came in from the same port; she had 1,100 bales of cotton engaged, and leaves this evening.

The Golden State came in from White river with 35 bales of cotton. She reports freights very scarce in that direction, and she returns to day.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, THURSDAY EVE., March 14, 1861. The money market to-day was rather casier, owing to the increase in currency and a falling off in the demand for loans. The demand to-day was small, and in all cases when first class paper was offered it was readily met at moderate rates of interest. are the same as reported yesterday.

In the general market there was but little doing, the demand for the various articles of trade being light. Flour was dull and prices were rather tending down, and no sales of consequence could be made except at a decline on our quotations. The sales to-day were confined to the home trade, not amounting to over 350 bbls at prices ranging from $4.75@$5.50 for the various grades. Wheat continues to arrive freely, and all that comes in meets with a ready sale. The demand for corn is only moderate, and the sales the past few days have been exceedingly light, owing to the fact that dealers have been busy in filling their old orders. The market closed very quiet and dull at 49@526 for yellow to prime white shelled. Oats are dull and unchanged. Whisky is steady at 14c.

Groceries are quiet and unchanged with terest. Uncurrent money and exchange

Groceries are quiet and unchanged, with only a moderate demand for the home trade.

The provision market to-day was very dull, and a disposition was required to The provision market to-day was very dull, and a disposition was manifested on the part of holders to realize, but buyers were not willing to purchase to any extent, and the sales were limited at $17 for city packed. The demand for bacon on Southern orders was very light to-day, and the market closed dull at 7½@7½c for shoulders, 9½c for rib, 10½@10½c for clear rib, and 10¾c for clear sides. The market closed dull and firm, the packers' purchases could be made at a decline of about ½c on our quotations. There was a moderate inquiry for lard, with sales of some four hundred tierces at 9c for prime. Bulk meats are dull, with nothing doing.

Commerce of New Orleans.

By the following from the New Orlean Delta, of Sunday, it will be seen that the commerce of New Orleans this season is fully as large if not larger than the previous season. The only falling off in the receipts is in cotton, and this is owing to the shortness of the crop:

the shortness of the crop:

In order to convince our readers abroad of the unabated prosperity of the commerce of New Orleans, we give the following statement of the receipts of cotton, sugar, molasses, flour, corn, and tobacco from the 1st of September to the 8th of March the present and preceding season:

Present season. Last s'n.

Exchange at Chicago.

The Tribune of yesterday says: The exchange market has been decidedly dul The exchange market has been decidedly dull this morning, owing more to a sudden rise of stocks in New York than to any change in the relations between supply and demand. Under the first private dispatches that Missouri's sold at 68 at the first board, closing at 67%, the bankers sold freely to each other at 6 % cent. but in the afternoon they were more reserved. The closing rates at the afternoon board for those stocks in which the West is most interested were, for Tennessee's 75, Missouri's 67, Virginia's 31%. The buying price for the day from outsiders was about 5% 66. The nominal selling price was 7 % cent. but customers could readily obtain concessions of % 6% % cent. on round lots. The market for the day had decidedly a downward tendency.

From Washington. Washington, March 14.—The Supreme Court gave to day a decision in favor of March Saines, and made orders which will blace her in possession of all the property of Daniel Clark, of whom she is the only certimate child

The Court decided adversely in the Kenicky and Ohio mandamus case. What and Ohio mandamus case. While neing that the Governor of a State announcing that the Governor of a State should surrender a fugitive upon proper proof, it held that Congress cannot impose a duty upon a State officer, &c.

The Senate, to-day, confirmed W. H. Allen, Nathaniel Green and Francis Blake Lieutenants in the Navy; Julius Meare, Alex. W. Starke and D. M. Cohen First Lieutenants, and Jos. Forney and Lewis M. Gouldsborough Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps; Wm. Allen, Postmaster at Auburn, N. Y.; Amos Tuck, Naval officer, Boston; Rufus Hosmer, Consul to Frankfort-on-the-Main; Willard P. Phillips, Collector, Salem, Mass.; J. R. Jones, Marshal of the Northern District of Illinois, and Cassius M. Clay, Minister to Spain.

The nomination of Corwin as Minister to Mexico was not acted upon, his accept-The homination of Corwin as Minister to Mexico was not acted upon, his acceptance not being decided upon.

The only nomination to-day was that of Jacob Holderman, Minister to Stockholm. In the Supreme Court the opinions in the Albany bridge case are reserved for the next term in December, till which time he Court adjourned.

From New Orleans

New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 14.—The Galveston Civilian, of the 11th, says: The surrender of Fort Brown was agreed upon quietly between the Texas Commissioners and Capt. Hill on the 6th. The News says that Fort Brown will be given up as soon as transportation can be found for the Federal troops. The latter take to their port of destination two light batteries of artillery. The Daniel Webster is off Brazos waiting to take part of the Federal troops. Other vessels will probably be dispatched to take

An ordinance to submit a permanent Constitution to the people for ratification or rejection is under consideration in the Convention at Baton Rouge. A resolution authorizing the transfer of the State military to the Provisional Government; also, to allow volunteers to enlist under the Provisional Government, passed the House. A joint resolution was introduced into the House, that the Convention should submit House, that the Convention should submit House, that the Convention should submit the Constitution of the Confederate State to the people, or that a convention be elected by the people for that purpose.— Laid over.

From Richmond. RICHMOND, VA., March 14.—Mr. Tyler closed his speech to-day. He demands that Virginia put torth an ultimatum, demanding full and ample security as the only condition of her remaining in the Union. He thought such security would eventually bring back the Cotton States, and Virginia cannot exist without them.

The speech was generally concliatory, but unequivocally favored Southern rights. The propositions were referred to a

The report of the Committee on Federal Relations will be taken up to-morrow. St. Louis, March 14.—In Convention to-day, Judge Gamble offered resolutions to appoint delegates to the Virginia Conven-tion, in accordance with an invitation from esolutions.
Yesterday and to day were almost en-irely devoted to debate on the majority

PETERSBURG, VA., March 14.—The vote for and against instruction continued today. Extraordinary exertions are made on both sides, and the excitement is very great. The following is the result: For instruction 736; against it 673. The latter gained 12 to-day. Processions are parading to-night with music and speeches. Tomorow is the last day. The Secessionists are sanguine.

NEW YORK, Mrrch 14.—The steamer De Soto, from Havana on the 9th, has arrived. No news of interest. Sugars are more active, with a stock of 1.0,000 boxes.—Freights plenty, and vessels wanted. Money easy.

Conflagration. Sr. Louis, March 14.—The planing mill f Bradford & Hart, corner of Ninth and Valnut streets, was burned this morning, loss $15,000.
